

Parking2000 : 3 mn from RER E and Tram T3

Opening of the new metro station just across the street of Parking Paris 19 is really good news for travellers coming from northern Europe.

When coming from Netherlands, Belgium, Denmark, Sweden, England, Germany or Norway ; consider driving your car to Paris Entrance by the A1 motorway and the use the public transportation system.

Line E of the metro will take you to Magenta Paris Gare du Nord in 5 minutes and Paris Saint Lazare, Haussmann in 8 minutes. From these two major hubs you will be able to go anywhere in Paris very swiftly.

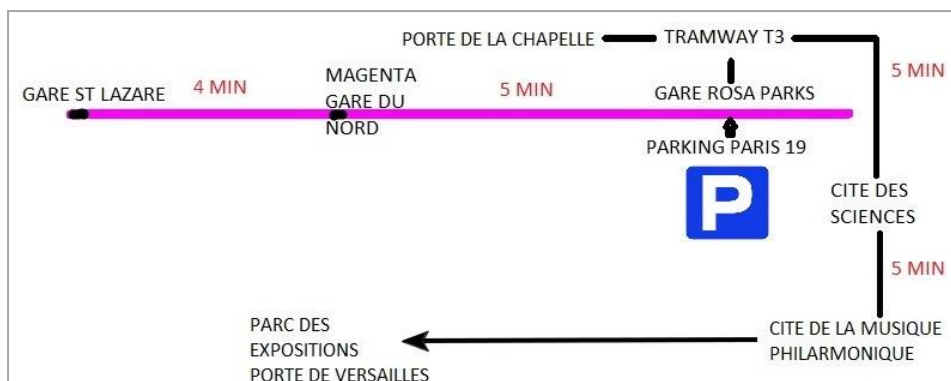

This also means that going from Parking Paris 19 to the major stores (Galeries Lafayette and Printemps or to Opera will take you 15 minutes without the stress of driving in Paris centre and the expense for parking in the city center.

From Magenta Gare du Nord just one station by line E and you will be in Chatelet-Les Halles , heart of Paris.

From Magenta Gare du Nord , you will be At Saint Michel Notre Dame in two stations via B line.

The Tramway is also within walking distance through the station , this will take you very conveniently (one or two stations) to these major attractions : Cité de la Musique and Parc de la Villette with Cité des Sciences et de l'industrie.

Of course, the bicycles offer with Paris Velib has increased around Rosa Parks station.
